

the engagement

Technology will continue to play a role in tradeshows and may become more mainstream as touchless areas will be preferred

Large LED wall for impactful story-telling

Gesture technology wall, motion sensing

QR/Barcodes on personal hand-held devices for sharing content, product information or business card exchange

Second screen, raised to allow demonstrations that provide more viewing opportunities by attendees

Hybrid conference rooms with capability for virtual meetings

