

2021 KBIS Cancellation

Exhibit Space Payment Refund Policies

A. For exhibitors still signed on to exhibit at KBIS 2021

In the event of cancellation of the 2021 Kitchen & Bath Industry Show (KBIS), exhibitors still signed on to exhibit at KBIS 2021 will be able to select from one of the following three options* relative to any 2021 KBIS exhibit space payments they have already remitted to Emerald Expositions:

1. Redirect some/ all of the balance they have paid Emerald for their 2021 KBIS exhibit space to cover the cost of their desired participation level in the 2021 virtual KBIS.
2. Rollover some/ all of the balance they have paid Emerald for their 2021 KBIS exhibit space to be applied as a credit towards the cost of their 2022 KBIS exhibit space.
3. Receive a refund, less any redirected or rollover funds.

*Requests must be submitted in writing to KBIS indicating the preferred option within 30 days of the formal announcement of the cancellation of the 2021 KBIS. Failure to do so will result in the automatic rollover of all payments remitted by the exhibitor for 2021 KBIS exhibit space to apply towards the cost of the exhibitor's 2022 KBIS exhibit space.

B. For exhibitors that have cancelled out of KBIS 2021

In the event of cancellation of the 2021 Kitchen & Bath Industry Show (KBIS), exhibitors that have already cancelled out of the 2021 event will have an option to reallocate funds already transferred to the KBIS 2022 show to cover the cost of their desired participation level in the 2021 virtual KBIS (less a 10% deposit for KBIS 2022).

KBIS 2022 Space Selection

In the event KBIS 2021 is canceled, space selection for KBIS 2022 will begin shortly thereafter. KBIS 2022 space selection will be based on KBIS 2021 priority point order for all exhibitors. Priority points can be boosted by participation in the 2021 KBIS virtual event:

- 5 points for the Silver Package
